

A STRONG PARTNERSHIP. BUILT TO LAST.

CONTINUING A PARTNERSHIP BUILT ON TRUST SINCE 2005.

Dixie Plywood Company is proud to be recognized by James Hardie as part of the expansion of its regional distribution partnerships.

This announcement reflects a continued investment in strengthening the supply chain and delivering the industry's leading exterior building products through trusted regional distributors.

LONGSTANDING RELATIONSHIP.
CONTINUED GROWTH.
SHARED SUCCESS.

A PARTNERSHIP THAT CONTINUES TO GROW

- 2005 Dixie and James Hardie began our relationship in our Atlanta market.
- 2006 Expanded into Florida the following year.
- 2007 Then, in 2007 Dixie bought Weyerhaeuser's Nashville distribution center and grew the relationship once again.
- 2013 The final piece came in 2013 when James Hardie was looking for loyal distributors and Dixie was there to fill that need.
- 2026 Now, in 2026, James Hardie recognized the value of our long-term relationship by continuing to depend on Dixie to distribute James Hardie siding products in ALL of the markets we have served for so long.

WHAT'S NEW

Dixie will continue to distribute James Hardie siding products in ALL of the markets we have served.

Dixie will also continue to handle Versatex in all markets as well.

Additionally, Dixie will distribute the complete TimberTech line of decking and railing products in our Nashville location.

OUR COMMITMENT

At DIXIEPLY, we're committed to providing our dealer partners with the inventory, service, and expertise they depend on every day.
